DR. SUN MAY SHORTLY RETURN TO THE EMPIRE

Chinese sentiment concerning the fall of Port Arthur is not so cheerful over the result as might have been anticipated. To the Chinese of Hawaii it is really a cause for sorrow rather than for rejoicing, although of two evils open to the Chinese they accept with some pleasure the fact that the Japanese have forced the Muscovite out of Manchuria.

"Asia for the Asiatics!"

That is the keynote of the Chinese sentiment, and gives the whole situation from the Chinese standpoint, in a nutshell.

Editor C. Yet Kai of the Chinese Daily News, published in Honolulu, is treating the fall of Port Arthur in his editorial columns as above.

"It is very hard for us to express our sentiments because the fall of Port Arthur represents also the loss to us of part of our Empire," said the editor yesterday to an Advertiser representative. "That Manchuria, or Port Arthur at least, should fall permanently into the hands of the Japanese is not our desire. From present indications it would seem that Japan has decided to retain Port Arthur at least, and that does not meet with our wish, for we had hoped that Manchuria would be restored to us, but it will probably be different, and China has not the strength to meet the situation otherwise. That Port Arthur should fall into the hands of another power and remain a permanent possession is too bad.

"It may be a time of rejoicing for the Japanese but it is a day of sorrow to us. Whether Port Arthur is in the possession of Jap or Russ, it is equally a sorrow to us. Of the two evils, however, Japanese occupation is better.

"I say Asia for the Asiatics, because the Chinese are Asiatics, and the Japanese are Mongoloids, and therefore have Chinese characteristics. Should the downfall of China ever take place we trust it will be under Japanese domination for the Chinese can easily assimilate with the Japanese.

"The Japanese, in fact, are to the Chinese what the Americans are to the English.

"Yes, we have come to the conclusion that Japan will really hold Port Arthur.

"Again we do not believe the Baltic fleet will accomplish anything and may turn tail and return home."

Miss Flyrty—"Jack Hanson was telling me about a romantic adventure he had at the party last night. It seems he bumped into a girl in a dark hallway and kissed her; and he doesn't know yet—"

Miss Elders—"Oh! tee-hee! That was I." Miss Flyrty—"What? Oh, for goodness' sake, don't tell him now. Let him have his romance."—Philadelphia Press.

"Who is that man walking up and down the corridor, with frowning brow and shoulders weighted down with the heavy burden of legislation? Some distinguished statesman, no doubt?" "That, my dear sir, is the assistant secretary and stenographic clerk of the new congressman from Alabama."—Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune.

Hawaiian Chemical Methods.

Recent references in our columns to chemical methods in connection with the sugar industry, and to the marked advance of the Hawaiian chemists in these matters, has brought to us from President C. Hartmann of the Hawaiian Sugar Chemists' Association a copy of the methods adopted by the Association in October, 1904, in sugar work under chemical control. We present our readers with the same in this issue, and it will be found replete with valuable suggestions, all tending to uniformity in chemical methods and to making sugar house work more easily comparable.—Louisiana Planter.

MEN, WAKE UP!

IS YOUR BACK WEAK?
HAVE YOU DRAGGING PAINS?

ARE YOU EASILY TIRED?

Have you lost the fire and strength of youth? Have you "come and go" pains in your back and shoulders? Are you growing old too soon?

If you have these symptoms or any other sign of breaking down of your nerves and vitality, you will find new life in Electricity as applied while you sleep.

Dr. McLaughlin's Electric Belt

Is made for you. It is the best way to use Electricity. It pours a gentle stream of life into the weak parts continually for hours every night. It refreshes the nerves, expands the vital powers, enriches the circulation and makes you feel bright, active and vigorous in one night's use. You get stronger each day, and in a few weeks you are a new man, stronger and younger than the fire of youth. It is grand, this method of mine, and every man who has ever used it is praising it.

WORTH TEN TIMES WHAT HE PAID FOR IT.

Marshall, Cal., Dec. 26, 1903.

DR. McLAUGHLIN—Dear Sir: I have used your Belt for about two months, and I must say that it has cured me entirely. I feel like a new man now and can do a hard day's work easily. There are no more pains in my back and arms, and that tired feeling has gone. I am sure that the Belt has been worth ten times more to me than I paid for it, and if you wish you may use my name, for I will be glad to recommend the Belt. Gratefully yours, ARNOLD F. BERRI.

Don't delay trying it. Your future happiness depends on your checking this drain upon your vitality, so stop it now and you can be sure of a long and vigorous life, full of the joys of a healthy vigor.

Don't drug. Drugs can't cure you, as you know, if you have tried them. My Belt cures because it increases your nerve power and vitality. Electricity renews the youthful strength; that cures. Send for my beautiful illustrated book, telling about my method. I send it, sealed, free. I have 50,000 copies. Write today. Send this ad.

THE FUNDAMENTAL LAW OF HAWAII: A NEW LAW BOOK

The Hawaiian Gazette Company, Ltd., announce the publication of a book, edited and indexed by Lorrin A. Thurston, containing the several constitutions and other fundamental laws of earlier days, the annexation treaty, resolutions and procedure and the Organic Act.

The book contains 298 pages of text and 138 pages of index. It is printed in regulation law book type and style and is substantially bound in calf skin.

The price is $5.

The scope and character of the book and the reasons for its publication are given in the preface, which is as follows:

PREFACE TO THE FUNDAMENTAL LAW OF HAWAII.

Congress has expressly enacted a law organizing Hawaii into a Territory, and extended the provisions of the United States Constitution to the Territory.

In a restricted sense, therefore, the United States Constitution and the Organic Act constitute Hawaii's fundamental law; but the Organic Act specifically re-enacts the great body of pre-existing Hawaiian statute law, which was based upon the several Hawaiian Constitutions and organic laws.

A large proportion of the law governing real estate, property and personal rights in Hawaii being based upon these early constitutions and laws; and precedents, decisions and court practice having grown out of them, it is necessary to consult them in order to have a comprehensive understanding of existing Hawaiian law. They are nearly all published, however, in books now out of print, and in scattered volumes, inaccessible to many, and inconveniently located for all. In fact, not even practicing lawyers in Hawaii can, except at considerable loss of time, place their hands on the laws and constitutions necessary for the study and decision of practical questions continually being presented to them.

Under these circumstances it is believed that the public interest requires the re-publication in convenient reference form of what may be called "the fundamental law of Hawaii." To meet this requirement the following constitutions, laws and documents have been compiled under the common title of "The Fundamental Law of Hawaii," viz.:

1. The first Constitution of Kamehameha III, 1840, including the previously issued Bill of Rights.
2. The first laws of Hawaii, enacted under Kamehameha III, (1833-1842), published together in 1842.
3. The law creating and principles guiding the Land Commission.
4. The second Constitution of Kamehameha III, 1852.
5. The Constitution of Kamehameha V, 1864.
6. The Constitution of Kalakaua, 1877.
7. The Proclamation and orders incident to the establishment of the Provisional Government, 1893.
8. The Constitution of the Republic of Hawaii, 1894.
9. The treaty annexing Hawaii to the United States, 1897.
10. The Resolution of the Hawaiian Senate ratifying the annexation treaty, 1897.
11. The Joint Resolution of Congress annexing Hawaii, 1898.
12. The documents and procedure incident to the transfer of the sovereignty and possession of Hawaii to the United States, 1898; and the executive orders of President McKinley, relating to the government of Hawaii, issued during the transition period between the date of annexation and the passage of the Organic Act, 1898-1900.
13. The Act of Congress organizing Hawaii into a Territory, 1900.

The laws of 1842 are not "fundamental" in the sense that the constitutions and other laws and documents are; but they have been included herein for the reason that they were not only the first written laws of Hawaii, but embodied many of the pre-existing laws and customs of the country and therefore throw a strong light upon the origin and development of much of the present law.

Only a few of the laws, constitutions and documents re-published, have ever been indexed. A full index of all of them is included herein. Instead of one general index, each is indexed separately. The reason for such treatment is that reference will usually be desired to a given subject in some one law or constitution. The subject sought will be much easier found in the short index of the particular law, than it would have been in a necessarily long index of the whole.

The table of contents gives the page of each constitution and law and of its index.

THE UNBURIED DEAD OF FORMER ASSAULTS: HORRORS OF THE THIRTY-MINUTE TRENCH (WHERE THE DEFENDERS MUST BE RELIEVED EVERY HALF-HOUR).

Mr. Villiers writes: "The upper part of the Banduzan position forms a bone of contention between the Russians and the Japanese. In some places the enemy's works are so near that the dead of the last assault cannot be removed. The stench of the corpses and the nearness of the Russians, who are less than a hundred yards away, make the trench very perilous and ghastly. The men who occupy it are therefore relieved every thirty minutes."
